OUR PHILOSOPHY ON FOOD

Stone's co-founders, Steve Wagner and Greg Koch, have been involved in the international Slow Food movement since 2000. Slow Food promotes "getting back to the table" and celebrates artisanal, natural and old-world approaches to food. Stone Brewing World Bistro & Gardens – Escondido embraces this philosophy and uses in-season, local organic produce and 100% naturally raised meats. Not only is this a sustainable practice that provides the freshest, healthiest food possible, it simply tastes better!

It is our mission to put all these principles into practice while creating intensely flavorful, unique, and creative fare for events large and small. Our exceedingly high standards and unique approach have not gone unnoticed, and have earned us national attention and awards.

Let us lend our talents to your event and create the food and ambiance that will make your wedding extraordinary!

We welcome you to come dine with us and explore the gardens. See for yourself how perfect our location can be for your wedding.

We'd be happy to schedule a tour or make a reservation at the restaurant for you!
